

RESISTENCE & RELIEF

*Screams of pain, maelstrom of violence
but all we hear is the sound of silence.*

Are we blind?

*Why can't we find
the way to live our moment in the space?*

Tell me folks, what would you rather?

Step aside or come together?

We choose our fate.

We must create a better future. That's the case.

*And we must clean this toxic dump
like Amerika that has just fired Trump.*

Can you hear me, Janez Janša, accusing hostiles in this stanza?

It's not the matter of the race.

*Or the matter of religion neither.
That's not the time to take a breather.*

*So all the people with the will:
It's time for us! Don't wait until they start to spit us in the face.*

*In the world of anger and lies
We'll find peace in each other's eyes.*

*We'll stop the show
and take a bow
for those who treat us with the grace.*

*Is there anything we could regret?
Yes! That we haven't started yet.*

*So once again,
do all you can
to make this world a better place.*
